

What is the point of the FCC exactly if it does not act on the concerns of so many citizens regarding the political piece, Stolen Honor? We all know this is not a news story. Puhleeeease.

If the airwaves now belong only to Republicans, then perhaps the FCC could close its doors and credit the costs of operation toward the deficit. Powell, for heavens sake, do what is 'right.'